

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air a blatant political piece right before an election should be considered a disgrace by every American -- conservative and liberal alike. I am writing to urge the FCC to force Sinclair to abide by the rules of fair play practiced by the legitimate media. This is an issue that goes to the heart of our democracy. Sinclair must not be permitted to abuse the public trust.
Glenn Wallis